Delegate Information

All hotel rooms for the conference are single occupancy unless agreed otherwise prior to the event. Check in is at 3:30pm and luggage can be stored at the hotel reception until rooms are ready.

Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the hotel.

All delegates and staff will be wearing lanyards on the day of the conference. They are colour coded to allow you to easily identify DTAS Staff or Trustees should you have any questions.

DTAS Staff will be wearing black, Trustees will be wearing green and all other delegates will be wearing red.

Information on the workshops and activities that you have chosen to attend will be on your lanyard badge, this will detail the times and rooms of each workshop. Please ensure to attend the workshops on time. At the end of the event, please also ensure that you return your lanyards to the registration desk so that they can be reused.

Mobile phones should be kept on silent whilst in the conference venue however we do encourage you post on social media with the hashtag #DTAS22 should you want to.

Our Comms Team will be snapping photographs throughout the event for our social media channels and for future publications. If you do not consent to having your photograph taken, please ensure you let a member of the DTAS team know.
