

DEVELOPMENT TRUSTS ASSOCIATION SCOTLAND

Membership Criteria

Overview of the membership criteria for Full and Provisional
Membership with DTA Scotland

Updated June 2026

Membership Criteria

Below is a list of the criteria we use when assessing an organisation for membership.

Some criteria are essential for membership, while others reflect good practice that we expect members to be working towards. If you have any questions about this, please get in touch with us at info@dtascot.org.uk.

Criteria for Provisional Membership (£50 per year)

(Important note: Provisional membership is only available for up to 3 years with a possible 1-year extension)

Statement about our organisation	Essential or Working Towards	Examples
Our organisation is incorporated	✓ Essential	Either as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO), a Company Limited by Guarantee (CLG), or a Community Benefit Society (CBS or BenCom)
Our governing document shows that our organisation has a broad set of purposes including a community development or regeneration related charitable purpose	✓ Essential
Our governing document shows a defined geographical area of benefit	✓ Essential	Defined by postcode, community council area, or map
Our governing document shows that our board is not allowed to refuse membership	✓ Essential	Must not have a clause or article allowing board to decide to refuse membership
Our membership fee, if we have one, would be considered reasonable	✓ Essential	Membership fees must not be so high as to create a financial barrier

Our governing document reflects that our organisation will have a minimum of at least 20 members at all times	✓ Essential
Our governing document shows that the majority of our members must be from within our defined community, and that they have the main voting power at general meetings (because we have either a majority Ordinary Members clause including quorum at AGM, or only Ordinary Members can vote, or we only have Ordinary members)	✓ Essential	It must be clear that an AGM cannot be held by trustees alone – the AGM quorum must be set at a number greater than the organisation's maximum number of trustees.
Our governing document shows that the majority of our board must be from within our defined community, and that board meetings can only be quorate if majority Ordinary Members are present	✓ Essential	Quorum requirements, and the minimum and maximum number of directors should be realistic and flexible enough to reflect future growth or a reduction in membership
Our organisation has had an AGM and now has elected board members in place	✓ Essential
Our accounts show that we are independent of personal, political, religious, outside agency, local authority, corporate or funder interests or agendas	✓ Essential
Our accounts show that we are financially solvent	✓ Essential
Our organisation has an ambition to develop diverse income streams	✓ Essential

Our organisation has delivered a small amount of activity and has ambitions to deliver projects in broad range	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation has some form of active public presence or means of communication with our community	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential	E.g. website, social media, or newsletter
Our organisation is building relationships with other organisations in community	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation has completed some consultation activity in the area where the community have been involved	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation is working towards a Community Action plan	<input type="checkbox"/> Working towards
Our organisation is working towards building unrestricted reserves and having a policy in place	<input type="checkbox"/> Working towards

Criteria for Full Membership (£90 per year)

Statement about our organisation	Essential or Working Towards	Examples
Our organisation is incorporated	✓ Essential	Either as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO), a Company Limited by Guarantee (CLG), or a Community Benefit Society (CBS or BenCom)
Our governing document shows that our organisation has a broad set of purposes including a community development or regeneration related charitable purpose	✓ Essential
Our governing document shows a defined geographical area of benefit	✓ Essential	Defined by postcode, community council area, or map
Our governing document shows that our board is not allowed to refuse membership	✓ Essential	Must not have a clause or article allowing board to decide to refuse membership
Our governing document clearly lists the requirements for membership (i.e. resident in area, entitled to vote in local government elections, supports the purposes of the organisation)	✓ Essential
Our membership fee, if we have one, would be considered reasonable	✓ Essential	Membership fees must not be so high as to create a financial barrier

Our governing document reflects that our organisation will have a minimum of at least 20 members at all times	✓ Essential
Our governing document shows that the majority of our members must be from within our defined community, and that they have the main voting power at general meetings (because we have either a majority Ordinary Members clause including quorum at AGM, or only Ordinary Members can vote, or we only have Ordinary members)	✓ Essential	It must be clear that an AGM cannot be held by trustees alone – the AGM quorum must be set at a number greater than the organisation's maximum number of trustees.
Our governing document shows that the majority of our board must be from within our defined community, and that board meetings can only be quorate if majority Ordinary Members are present	✓ Essential	Quorum requirements, and the minimum and maximum number of directors should be realistic and flexible enough to reflect future growth or a reduction in membership
Our organisation has had an AGM and now has elected board members in place	✓ Essential
Our accounts show that we are independent of personal, political, religious, outside agency, local authority, corporate or funder interests or agendas	✓ Essential
Our accounts show that we are financially solvent	✓ Essential

Our organisation has an ambition to develop diverse income streams	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation has some form of financial reporting is available at board level	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation has some form of active public presence or means of communication with our community	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential	E.g. website, social media, or newsletter
Our organisation is building relationships with other organisations in community	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation is involved in a Community Action Plan that is in place	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation is delivering projects from the Community Action Plan	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential
Our organisation has some kind of organisational strategy document in place	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Essential	Like a vision statement, mission statement, values statement, and/or a business plan
Our organisation is working towards building unrestricted reserves in line with our policy	<input type="checkbox"/> Working towards
Our organisation has a budget setting process and management accounts	<input type="checkbox"/> Working towards	